Pauley Hurls Padres Over Phils, 19-3

Behind the hurling and hitting of Bobby Pauley, the Padres romped to a 19-3 Torondo League victory over the Phillies.

Pauley struck out nine men and blasted a ground rule double as well as a single. Aiding Pauley, Steve Voisen clubbed a double and a single and Arlen Conto smashed a pair of singles. Floyd Devore also slammed a two bagger for the winners.

Danny Smith, Mike Ament and Dave Alden all took a try on the mound attempting to halt the Padre onslaught.

PUTTING TWO big innings together, the Angels roared past the Red Sox, 14 to 8. The Angels crossed home plate seven times in the third and six times in the fourth to ice the contest. David Martes was the winner with Remi Bresnan suffering the defeat.

Turning the tables on the Angels, the Pirates made the Seraphs walk the plank to a 24-12 tune.

Track and cross country great Mike Thornton today holds the distinction of being the second man in El Camino College history to win both the Athlete of the Year and Outstanding Performance awards.

Thornton duplicated the achievement of last year's winner, Dennis Hansen, another track and cross country ace, at the Annual Athletic Awards Banquet Thursday night. Cinching the trophy as outstanding athlete, Thornton set a national junior college mile record in the Southern California Championships.

The Torrance ace galloped to the award with a 4:08.4 four-lap run which also netted him the Outstanding Performance trophy.

As a harrier, the former Torrance High runner was beaten only by teammate Rich Fernandez in dual meet competition and wound up fourth in the Southern Cal Finals.

The outstanding swimmer award was presented to Cappy Sheeley, who paced the finmen to a fifth place in the State Championships. In the process, he established a new state mark in the 100-yard butterfly and placed high in two other events.

Sheeley ended the season with one state and three college records to his credit. In baseball, John Torok walked off with the outstanding pitcher award while Frank Van Pattern took the leading hitter honor. Torok was the team's top infielder and Van Pattern was the outstanding outfielder.

All-Metropolitan Conference guard Dan Karavas was honored as the outstanding basketball player.

Steve Hallberg, year-long low-medalist for the conference champion golfers, received the trophy as the outstanding linksman. In gymnastics, Denis Oliver was presented the most outstanding award, and tennis ace George Blosser was awarded the Norm Verry Perpetual Trophy.

Don Holt earned the award as the college's top wrestler. Holt reigns as the state 147-pound champ. In addition to his other honors, Thornton was named the outstanding runner for track. Teammate Floyd Schmidt carried home the top field event man award.

first home run of the season, clobbering the horsehide over the wall on opening day.
